SECTION D – DISCLOSURE

Any coach will require completing an enhanced Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) application form and provide suitable identification to the Club Welfare Officer (or Scottish Athletics Welfare Officer). There is no charge for the check, but the coach will not be allowed to commence their role in the Club without satisfactory completion of the check. Such details will be retained by the Club Welfare Officer. Renewal of the check will be within a 3 year term.

Any parent helper will require completing a basic Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) application form and provide suitable identification to the Club Welfare Officer (or Scottish Athletics Welfare Officer). There is no charge for the check, but the parent helper will not be allowed to commence their role in the Club without satisfactory completion of the check. Such details will be retained by the Club Welfare Officer. Renewal of the check will be within a 3 year term.

Please turnover ...

SECTION D – DISCLOSURE (continued)

From time to time, the Club 'may' take pictures or use video to capture the training or competition efforts of the Club athletes. By returning this application form you AGREE to that practice and fully understand that the media footage 'may' appear on the Club website, noticeboard or Facebook page – no footage will be published elsewhere without your explicit consent.

PARENT ASSISTANCE FORM

Over the past 30 years, the Club has been very fortunate to have had a fantastic level of support from Athletes Parents in all aspects of running the Club and without them it would be a challenge to support all the Events the Athletes participate in. To continue this great relationship we would welcome any support you could give the Club over the coming year.
